

Triune God be my life

1. Oh, my God, within Thee,
there is eternal life,
And this life is expressed in the Son,
The risen Lord today,
as the Spirit of life,
Within us, quickens us, gives us life.
2. O Behold, from the throne
of God and of the Lamb,
Flows a river of water of life,
God as the source of life,
Christ the fountain of life,
Triune God springing up eternally.
3. Jesus Lord, unto Thee,
my spirit open wide,
Calling Thee, from within, drink Thee,
Jesus Lord, now I turn
to the river of life,
Triune God, saturate me as life.

The Springing up of the Divine Life

- I. The Bible reveals that God is Triune—the Father, the Son, and the Spirit:
- A. God the Father as the source is the unique initiator.
 - B. God sent His only begotten Son into this world that we might have life and live through Him.
 - C. The Spirit, whom God has given to us, is bountiful and without measure.
- II. The Father is the source of life, the Son is the spring of life, and the Spirit is the river of life; this flowing issues in the totality of eternal life:
- A. The flowing Triune God is imparted into the believers as their blessing.
 - B. God is our enjoyment today and for eternity.
 - C. We can be one with God, mutually indwelling each other.
- III. The Triune God is not only the One on the throne who is universally vast, but He is also the One in our heart:
- A. If we confess our sins, God will cleanse us from our unrighteousness.
 - B. To call on the Lord's name is to drink the living water given to us by God.
 - C. Being baptized into the Triune God.
